CASE Credit Union Raises over $4,600 for Weekend Survival Kits

LANSING, Mich. (May 11, 2018) – CASE Credit Union employees, led by the Community Activity Team, raised $4,640.08 for Weekend Survival Kits – a local charity organization that gives hope to hungry kids in the mid-Michigan area by providing nutritional nourishment kits on the weekends.

CASE Credit Union’s Learning and Development Specialist, Jessica Beckett, presented the check to Weekend Survival Kits’ COO and Director of Food Bank Relations, Jillaine Eaton, during the Credit Union’s April all-staff meeting.

“I’m very proud of how generous our employees are in assisting local non-profits that provide an abundance of helpful resources,” stated Jeffrey Benson, President/CEO. “CASE Credit Union is committed to helping the communities in which we serve by supporting neighborhood charities and programs that positively impact the lives of those in need.”

In addition to the check presentation, 11 CASE employees graciously volunteered an evening to help assemble 927 supplemental food kits for Weekend Survival Kits.
