CASE Credit Union Raises over $6,000 for Cristo Rey Community Center!

Lansing, MI 1/25/2017 – CASE Credit Union employees, led by the Community Activity Team, raised over $6,000 for Cristo Rey Community Center. In addition to the money raised, CASE’s staff donated items to support Cristo Rey’s food pantry. CASE Credit Union’s Learning and Development Manager, Darcie Raynor presented the check to Cristo Rey Executive Director, Joe Garcia, during the Credit Union’s January all-staff meeting.

“I’m extremely proud of how generous our employees are when it comes to supporting a wonderful non-profit organization such as Cristo Rey Community Center,” stated Jeffrey Benson, President/CEO. “CASE Credit Union takes great pride in assisting local non-profits that provide an abundance of helpful resources to those in need throughout our community. It makes our fund-raising efforts even more plentiful.”

About CASE Credit Union

Established in 1936 by Lansing area educators, CASE Credit Union is a full-service financial institution serving over 40,000 members and managing approximately $270 million in assets. CASE Credit Union is focused on service and committed to exceeding the financial expectation of today’s mobile society through convenient products and services.

About Cristo Rey Community Center

Cristo Rey Community Center is a non-profit, basic-needs service center that provides access to food, medical care, and counseling programs to all of their neighbors in need. Since 1968 they have been working to heal the sick, feed the hungry, protect and enrich children, engage and honor the elderly, and advocate for the most vulnerable in the community.
