CASE Credit Union Awards Scholarships to Local Students

Lansing, MI 6/21/2016 – CASE Credit Union awarded $13,000 in college scholarships to ten deserving local students at their annual meeting on June 21.

The Chubb/Hayes/Feeman Scholarship awarded $1,000 to seven college-bound high school seniors. Winners were selected based on their academic achievement, community involvement, school activities, awards and honors, financial needs, recommendations, and an essay on financial literacy initiatives.

Scholarships were awarded to:

- Miranda Maher who will be attending Michigan State University
- Fernando Carretero who will be attending the University of Michigan
- Viet Phan who will be attending Michigan State University
- Violet Dagadu who will be attending Western Michigan University
- Kara Mott who will be attending Grand Valley State University
- Jillian Johnson who will be attending Olivet College
- Kamryn Whitfield who will be attending Johnson and Wales University

The Constance Knowlton Scholarship awarded three $2,000 scholarships to Lansing Community College students. Constance Knowlton was a retired teacher from the Lansing School District where she taught for over 30 years, touching the lives of many generations of students. Her commitment to education went far beyond the classroom, having served many years as a member of the Michigan Education Association and CAREEA (Retired Teachers Association).

Scholarships were awarded to Ashley Fannon, Emily Vincent, and MaKailey DeAlmeida.

“CASE Credit Union is proud to assist these hard-working students attain their educational goals through our Scholarship Programs!” stated Jeffrey Benson, President/CEO.
