CASE Credit Union Donates over $5,000 to End Violent Encounters (EVE)

Lansing, MI 6/24/2015 – CASE Credit Union employees, led by the Community Activity Team, raised $5,428.51 for End Violent Encounters (EVE) of Lansing, MI. CASE Credit Union’s Learning and Development Manager, Sarah Velez, presented the check to EVE’s Community Development Director, Nancy Bates, during the credit union’s June all-staff meeting.

“I’m extremely proud of the employees of CASE Credit Union for their dedication and efforts to raise money for End Violent Encounters (EVE),” said Jeffrey Benson, President/CEO. “CASE Credit Union takes pride in supporting local non-profits that benefit the community.”

EVE’s mission is to provide shelter and supportive services to victims of domestic violence while seeking to end domestic violence through public awareness and community education. Programs are client centered and free. They are designed to empower survivors by assisting with housing, legal issues, parenting, job skills, health, and safety issues.

Established in 1936 by Lansing area educators, CASE Credit Union is a full-service financial institution serving over 35,000 members and managing approximately $250 million in assets. CASE Credit Union is focused on service and committed to exceeding the financial expectations of today’s mobile society through convenient products and services.
