Lansing, MI – CASE Credit Union awarded $12,000 in college scholarships to nine deserving local students at their annual meeting on June 16.

The Chubb/Hayes/Feeman Scholarship awarded $1,000 to six college-bound high school seniors. Winners were chosen based on their academic achievement, community involvement, school activities, awards and honors, financial needs, recommendations, and an essay on financial literacy initiatives.

Scholarships were awarded to:

- Delesiya Davis who will be attending the University of Michigan
- Beth Fransted who will be attending Hope College
- Marissa Marsh who will be attending Michigan State University
- Lisa Ng Yu who will be attending Ferris State University
- Ashten Stammersky who will be attending Alma College
- Dymon Wilson who will be attending Eastern Michigan University.

The Constance Knowlton Scholarship awarded three $2,000 scholarships to Lansing Community College students. Constance Knowlton was a retired teacher from the Lansing School District where she taught for over 30 years touching the lives of many generations of students. Her commitment to education went far beyond the classroom, having served many years as a member of the Michigan Education Association and CAREEA (Retired Teachers Association).

Scholarships were awarded to

Haley Simon, Shela Adams, Hailey Jensen

“We are excited to help these deserving students continue their educational future!” stated Jeffrey Benson, President/CEO.

CASE Credit Union takes pride in supporting local students and their higher education goals. For more information on CASE Credit Union Scholarship Programs, please visit www.casecu.org.
