CASE Credit Union to Host Credit Care Seminar

Credit Care: Free Seminar Offered by CASE Credit Union

Lansing, MI – 6/23/14 – Two thirds of American adults—over 144 million people—haven't looked at their credit report in the last year and more than one third of American adults admit to not knowing their credit score. CASE Credit Union is offering a free seminar, Credit Care, on Saturday, June 28, 12-1 PM, in the community room of the credit union's new West Saginaw location at 5611 West Saginaw Highway, Lansing.

This informative workshop is designed to teach attendees how their credit report plays a significant role in their financial well-being. Topics include understanding what a credit score is, how it is used when applying for credit, and identifying ways to repair and improve credit. The speaker is Porsche Miles-Grant, CASE Credit Union Community Engagement Coordinator and Certified Financial Counselor.

“Knowing how to protect your personal information and reduce the risk of identity theft are critical skills in today's technological environment,” said Jeffrey Benson, CASE CEO. “We want to help everyone learn how to safeguard their information, spot potential signs of trouble early, and minimize the damage identity theft can cause.”

This seminar is open to members and to the general public. Advance registration is required and space is limited. Those interested in attending should call 517.393.7710 x1001 or email pmilesgrant@casecu.org.

Established in 1936 by Lansing area educators, CASE Credit Union is a full-service financial institution serving over 34,000 members and managing more than $245 million in assets. CASE Credit Union is focused on service and committed to exceeding the financial expectations of today's mobile society through convenient products and services. CASE was named one of Michigan's Top 100 Places to Work in 2013 by the Detroit Free Press.
