Credit Repair Care: Free Seminar Offered by CASE Credit Union

Lansing, MI – 5/1/13 – Two thirds of American adults—over 144 million people—haven't looked at their credit report in the last year and more than one third of American adults admit to not knowing their credit score. CASE Credit Union is offering a free seminar, Credit Repair Care, on Tuesday, May 14, 12-1 PM and 6-7 PM, in the community room of the credit union's new Lake Lansing location at 2400 West Road, East Lansing.

This informative workshop is designed to teach attendees how their credit report plays a significant role in their financial well-being. Topics include understanding what a credit score is, how it is used when applying for credit, and identifying ways to repair and improve credit. The speakers are Kara Peters, CASE Credit Union Community Education Coordinator and Karen Casler, CASE Credit Union Certified Financial Counselor.

This seminar is open to members and the general public. Advance registration is required and space is limited. Those interested in attending should call 517.393.7710 x1067 or email communityeducation@casecu.org.

Established in 1936 by Lansing area educators, CASE Credit Union is a full-service financial institution serving over 31,000 members and managing more than $238 million in assets. CASE Credit Union is focused on service and committed to exceeding the financial expectations of today's mobile society through convenient products and services. CASE was named one of Michigan's Top 100 Places to Work in 2012 by the Detroit Free Press.
