CASE Credit Union Announces Executive Promotions

Lansing-area credit union strives to better serve its clients

LANSING, Mich. (May 14, 2019) — CASE Credit Union, serving the Greater Lansing area since 1936, is pleased to announce the following executive hires and promotions:

Laura Hosey has been named vice president of lending, a position in which she will oversee consumer, mortgage and business lending. Hosey brings with her 25 years of experience in all aspects of credit union lending. She joined the CASE Credit Union team in January of this year. Prior to that, the Lansing resident worked at Michigan State University Federal Credit Union.

Bryanna Benoit has been named vice president of finance and chief financial officer. Benoit, who joined CASE Credit Union on Feb. 25 of this year, has been a credit union executive for more than 20 years, overseeing the accounting, branch operations, technology, business development and marketing departments. She was chief operating officer at Sovita Credit Union in Flint prior to coming to CASE Credit Union. The Rives Junction resident has a master's degree in business administration.

Corrie Jameson has been promoted to assistant vice president of internal audit. Jameson, who came to CASE Credit Union on Oct. 12, 2018, previously served as internal auditor. The DeWitt resident was the state administrative manager for the Michigan Office of Commission Audits, State Transportation Commission before coming to CASE Credit Union.

Derek McKerr has been promoted to the position of assistant vice president of compliance. McKerr, who joined CASE Credit Union on March 26, 2018, most recently served as the compliance officer. He was previously employed as chief compliance officer for Gabriels Community Credit Union in Lansing. McKerr, who resides in Grand Ledge, holds a Juris Doctor degree.

Rachel Singleton has been promoted to vice president of operations and resolutions, having most recently served as CASE Credit Union's assistance vice president of resolutions. Singleton began work at CASE on Oct. 31, 2012, serving first as resolutions specialist, then as assistant resolutions manager, then as manager of resolutions. Singleton has more than 13 years of credit union and financial institution experience. The Lansing resident was employed at Michigan State University Federal Credit Union prior to coming to CASE Credit Union.

About CASE Credit Union: Established in 1936 by Lansing-area teachers and administrators serving 180 members, CASE Credit Union today, nearly 80 years later, serves a membership of over 44,000 members and operates six branches throughout the Greater Lansing area, while controlling over $280 million in assets.
