CASE Credit Union Awards $18,000 in Scholarships to 13 Local Students

LANSING, Mich. (June 24, 2019) – This year, during CASE Credit Union’s annual meeting on June 18, the credit union awarded $18,000 in scholarships to 13 recipients to help alleviate college expenses. To date, CASE has awarded over $79,000 in scholarships to high school and college students.

The Chubb/Hayes/Feeman Scholarship awarded $1,000 to eight college-bound high school seniors. Recipients were selected based on their community involvement, academic achievement, school activities, awards and honors, financial needs, recommendations, and an essay on financial literacy initiatives.

“Building a better tomorrow begins with our youth and that is why CASE Credit Union is committed to supporting this year’s recipients in their journey to pursue higher education,” said president and CEO of CASE Credit Union, Jeffrey Benson. “We are beyond proud of each and every one of the recipients’ hard work, accomplishments, and community involvement and we cannot wait to see the accomplishments they achieve.”

The Chubb/Hayes/Feeman Scholarship was awarded to:

- Nam Phan, Holt High School (Michigan State University)
- Mellany Wilkinson, Okemos High School (Hope College)
- Koren King, Everett High School (Michigan State University)
- Graham Joseph, Haslett High School (Michigan State University)
