Lansing Credit Union Donates Over $5,100 to Helping Hands Respite Care

LANSING, Mich. (January 31, 2020) – CASE Credit Union is pleased to announce a check was presented for $5,125 to its fourth-quarter charity partner, Helping Hands Respite Care (HHRC). HHRC is a nonprofit organization that supports families through professional, compassionate, and person-centered caregiving.

“We thank CASE for choosing Helping Hands as one of their charity partners,” said executive director of HHRC, Yvonne Fleener. “Their support will help build our capacity to meet the needs of seniors and people with disabilities. We will put every dollar to good use right away!”

Through special events and activities, including “Dress Down for Charity” days, partnering with AmazonSmile, contests, and more, CASE employees raised $5,125 for HHRC.

“Quarter after quarter, I am continuously impressed by the generosity of our employees,” said Jeffrey Benson, president and CEO at CASE Credit Union. “We are proud to support an organization that provides resources and services to our veterans, seniors, and individuals with disabilities.”

CASE hosted a formal check presentation for HHRC on January 29 at 8 a.m. during an all-staff meeting.
